PRICE TWO CENTS

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.
An Excellent Combination.
The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and combining one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver, and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

ALL A MISTAKE

Spain Has Thrown No Obstacles In Way of Treaty of Friendship.

MR. STORER COMES HOME

That He Has Been Recalled From His Post, However, As Rumored Is Emphatically Denied.

There Has Been No Hitch In the Negotiations of the Treaty With Spain.

New York, March 17.—Bellamy Storer, United States minister to Spain, arrived yesterday on the American line steamer St. Louis from Southampton. Mr. Storer was surprised to learn that a rumor had been circulated that he had been recalled from his post, and emphatically denied that there was the slightest foundation for such a report.

"I have no idea," said Mr. Storer, "how such a rumor could have been started. I have simply come home on leave of absence for 90 days because at this time there is no urgency for my presence in Madrid. It is not true that there has been a hitch in the negotiations of the treaty with Spain; on the contrary, they have progressed most favorably and there is absolutely no obstacle in view to the successful accomplishment of the treaty. I may say, indeed that the most important provisions of the treaty have already been fully agreed upon. So far as the question of the rights of Spanish property owners in Porto Rico is concerned, the government at Madrid is fully satisfied. The negotiations of the treaty have been somewhat prolonged, not on account of any reluctance on the part of the Spanish government, but merely because every condition and I may say every phrase in the document must first be presented to the council of state for review and approval.

"Owing to the approaching accession of the young king the late ministry of Sagasta was in effect simply a provisional one, and as the final ratification had to be left to the new ministry, an opportunity was afforded me to apply for a short leave of absence. I expect to return to my post early in June. My relations with the Spanish government and with officials of all classes have been of most pleasant character, and on all hands I have been the recipient of the most courteous consideration.

"I regretted to notice in many of the American papers which I received in Madrid, statements to the effect that the young king was physically and mentally unfit to assume the reins of government. That is not true. He has been admirably brought up by a most devoted mother, and I see no reason why he should not reign with honor to himself and to his country. He has grown very fast and is now a fine-looking lad. He takes a keen interest in military affairs and shows to great advantage when he appears mounted at a review of the troops." Speaking of the king's accession Mr. Storer said: "There will be no formal coronation, as the king of Spain is supposed to be born crowned. He will merely take the oath to preserve the constitution, and there will be the customary ceremonies. It was, in fact, a question up to the last moment whether the representatives of foreign governments should be specially invited to witness the occasion. Only the night before I left Madrid the minister of state personally informed me that the king would be pleased to have a representative of the United States present. On this President Roosevelt designated J. L. M. Curry to attend as our representative. There was a peculiar appropriateness in the selection of Mr. Curry, as he was our minister at Madrid when the young king was born."

Boxcar Bomb Killed 2
Murphysboro, Ills., March 17.—A Mobile and Ohio freight train was derailed at Orville, six miles north of here, last night, and Sham Forsythe of Tupelo, Miss., was killed. His three companions, James Dylis, William Mauls and Alexander Smith, were dangerously injured. The men had climbed into a boxcar at Percy to come to Murphysboro.

A Bit of Sunday Sport.
El Paso, Tex., March 17.—Ten thousand people, most of them Americans, witnessed a bloody bull fight at Juarez, Mex., just across the river from this city, Sunday, in which two of Spain's most noted matadors—Fuentes and Mazzantini—took a leading part. Six bulls were dispatched by the sword and five horses were gored to death.

She Will Protect Foreigners.
Pekin, March 17.—Because a Chinaman threw a stone at Baroness Romania Ivezana, wife of the secretary of the Italian legation here, while she was passing in the street, the dowager empress has issued an edict sternly admonishing the Chinese against insulting foreigners.

Charge of Murder.
Litchfield, Minn., March 17.—Frank Addy has been arrested and placed in jail here charged with the murder of Milton Gordon and wife, who were burned to death New Year's eve in their home four miles from here.

LATER PARTICULARS

Gen. Kitchener Sends Further Word of Methuen's Capture.

London, March 17.—The war office has received the following communication from Lord Kitchener at Pretoria: "Lord Methuen has sent me a staff officer with a dictated dispatch, from which it appears that certain particulars previously given are inaccurate. The rear screen of mounted troops was rushed and overwhelmed at dawn. There was a gap of a mile between the ox and the mule convoys. The mounted supports to the rear of the screen, with General Methuen immediately reinforced by all the available mounted troops and a section of the 28th battery, maintained themselves for an hour, during which the convoys were closing up without disorder. "In the meanwhile 200 infantry were being disposed by Lord Methuen to resist the Boer attack which was outflanking the left of the rear guard. The Boers pressed that attack hard and the mounted troops, attempting to fall back on the infantry, got completely out of hand, carrying away with them in the rout the bulk of the mounted troops. Two guns of the 28th battery were left unprotected, but continued in action until every man, with the exception of Lieutenant Nesham, was hit. Lieutenant Nesham was called on to surrender, and upon refusing to do so, was killed.

"Lord Methuen, with 200 of the Northumberland fusiliers and two guns of the Fourth battery, then found himself isolated, but held on for three hours. During this period the remaining infantry, namely, 100 of the Lancashires with some 40 mounted men, mostly cape police who had occupied the kraal near the wagons, also continued to hold out against the repeated attacks of the Boers.

"By this time Lord Methuen was wounded and the casualties were exceedingly heavy amongst his men. Their ammunition was mostly expended, and the surrender was made at about half past 9 in the morning. The party in the kraal still held out and did not give in until two guns and a pom-pom were brought to bear upon them at about 10 o'clock, making their position untenable.

"It is confirmed that most of the Boers wore khaki uniforms. Many also wore our badges. Even at close quarters they could not be distinguished from our own men. The infantry fought well and the artillery kept up the traditions of their regiment. In addition to the 40 members of the cape police already mentioned a few parties of imperial yeomanry and cape police continued to hold their ground after the panic had swept the bulk of the mounted troops off the field."

Vile Blackmailing Scheme.

Pittsburg, March 17.—Repeated threats to abduct his three children unless a ransom of $25,000 were left in a certain spot, and a warning that murder would follow the placing of detectives on the case have caused Alexander R. Peacock, former first vice president and general sales agent of the Carnegie company, to remove his little family temporarily from his Lexington avenue home to the Holland House, New York. The case was put in the hands of detectives and it is said the arrest of the guilty parties is now practically certain.

Will Fight Extradition.

Quebec, March 17.—Colonel John F. Gaynor and Captain Greene, whose bail was estreated because of their non-appearance before court in Savannah to answer to the charge of the defrauding of the United States government, are still at the Chateau Frontenac in this city. No attempt has been made to arrest them, and there are some lawyers who claim that extradition proceedings would fail to force the men to Savannah.

Sargent to Be Placed.

Washington, March 17.—It is understood that Frank P. Sargent, the chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will accept the office of commissioner of immigration in the treasury when it is formally offered him which it is said will be shortly.

Doubtful Fatal Duel.

Reno, Nev., March 17.—Reese Evans and A. Smith fought a duel with Winchester at eight feet distance at Purdy Station. Each received injuries from which death resulted. The quarrel was over a strip of almost worthless land.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Fire Sunday destroyed nearly half the town of Cambell, Neb.

FATE OF THE BILL

Ship Subsidy Measure Has Reached Final Stage In the Senate.

VOTE NOW BEING TAKEN

With This Bill Disposed of the Measure for President's Protection Will Be Taken Up.

Uneventful Sessions Promise to Mark Doings of Congress This Week.

Washington, March 17.—In accordance with the agreement reached a week ago the senate will begin voting on the ship subsidy bill and amendments this afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be no speechmaking after the voting begins. The senate met at 11 o'clock, an hour earlier than usual, in order to give senators who still wished to be heard an opportunity to speak on the bill before the time to vote arrives. With the subsidy bill disposed of the bill introduced by Senator Hoar for the protection of the president of the United States from assassination will assume first place on the calendar, having been made the unfinished business. It is not expected, however, that there will be prolonged debate upon this bill, and there is great interest among senators as to which of several measures will be next preferred. The Republican steering committee probably will meet today to consider this matter. Either the oleomargarine bill or the Chinese exclusion bill doubtless will be made the unfinished business to succeed the presidential protection measure, though the Nicaragua canal bill also is pressing for attention. The canal bill, however, according to present understanding will be compelled to wait on both the other bills. There is a suggestion which members of the steering committee are considering, to allow the Chinese bill and the oleomargarine bill to run along side by side, one of them occupying the morning hour, and the other taking the time after the expiration of that hour. Senator Proctor, who will have charge of the oleomargarine bill, and Senator Penrose, who will lead the fight for the Chinese bill, are equally confident of the outcome.

IN THE HOUSE
Matters That Will Engage Representatives This Week.
Washington, March 17.—The house during the present week will pass the river and harbor bill, will decide the contested election case of Moss vs. Rhea from the Third Kentucky district, and will consider the bill for the retirement of officers of the revenue cutter service. Such is the program of the house leaders. The report in the contested election case is against Mr. Rhea, the sitting member, who is a Democrat, and it is regarded as a foregone conclusion that he will be unseated. The revenue cutter service bill was defeated in the last congress, but its friends claim to have hope that it will meet a better fate now. It is believed that the river and harbor bill will not consume more than two days. A few members who were dissatisfied with appropriations for improvements in their districts will make an effort to amend it on the floor to meet their individual wishes, but the committee believe they will have strength enough to prevent any attempt to amend it and that it will pass in the form in which it was reported from the committee.

Further Honors For Henry.

Berlin, March 17.—Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, after completing the fleet maneuvers during the coming summer, will resign the command of the first squadron, which he has held for two years. Prince Henry has held all positions in the German navy up to that of admiral. The only possible higher command is that of the double-squadron maneuvers, which have hitherto been conducted under a general inspector of the navy. It is expected that Prince Henry will be in command of the double squadron maneuvers next year.

Upset a Lamp.

Philadelphia, March 17.—One of the dormitory buildings of Bryn Mawr college, an institution for the higher education of young ladies, was burned last night. The fire was caused by the upsetting of a lamp in the room of one of the students. It got beyond the control of the local firemen and fire companies were sent from Philadelphia. No one was injured.

Railroad Company Must Pay.

Marion, Ind., March 17.—Joseph West has been awarded $1,474 by a circuit court jury against the P. C. C. & St. L. Railway company. West was the father of Frank West, who was instantly killed by a freight train of the Panhandle near Mier, eight miles west of Marion, on Aug. 2 last. West brought suit for $5,000 damages.

Fierce Blizzard.

Devil's Lake, N. D., March 17.—A blizzard, the worst in 10 years, has been raging for the past 48 hours. A large amount of snow which has fallen and is piled in miniature mountains. All railroad and other traffic is entirely abandoned. The thermometer is at zero.

MAY REVISE LAW

Method of Primary Elections Is Not Proving Satisfactory.

Indianapolis, March 17.—The aftermath of the Republican primaries is interesting. The candidates and their friends are trying to explain how certain things happened. Some things can be explained, others can't or won't be, as the politicians do not care to talk about them. One thing is certain, however, and that is the Republican leaders have had all they want of direct primaries unless they can be held under a better law. The campaign cost a number of candidates thousands of dollars, and while the grafters and bleeders naturally feel that the law is the proper thing, the better element of every party thinks the conditions that existed here during the last four weeks of the canvass should not be permitted. There is no doubt but that some of the candidates have been financially crippled and even those who won had a costly experience. There was much talk today to the effect that there will be an attempt to repeal the Joss primary law at the next legislature, and it is probable the men who will represent this county will favor such a step, as they had to make a canvass under it. However, it is likely that there will be another and a better law introduced, as Addison C. Harris, former minister to Austria, and some other prominent men of both parties propose to take up the matter at once, and by the time the legislature meets they expect to have ready a primary law that will be adequate in every respect.

The nomination of Newton Booth Tarkington, the author, as a candidate for representative makes it almost certain that "The Gentleman from Indiana" will be a member of the next legislature, as it is likely the county will go Republican again. If it should be close, as many predict, it is probable Tarkington will pull through, as he ran like a racehorse in the primaries and did not stir his hand to get a vote for himself. The first time he appeared among the politicians was while the returns were being tabulated, and for a while did not seem willing to believe he had won. The character of the vote for Tarkington was somewhat of a surprise. It was expected naturally that he would get the support of the literary and society people with whom he associates, but he had a strong following throughout the entire county. Some of his best majorities were in precincts in which the residents largely are working people. Some wag has already suggested that Tarkington should be made a member of the committee on phraseology of bills, one of the hardest-worked and least-heard-of committees in the house. It is understood that Tarkington is anxious to get a few "inside lights" on law-making to embody in a new novel he has in mind.

About 60 counties have selected delegates to the Republican state convention here April 23 and 24. It is expected that all counties with the exception of Marion will have their delegation named by the first or second week in April. The state committee is keeping in touch with the appointment of the delegates and is mailing a typewritten list of each county to each delegate as rapidly as the men are named. The candidates then begin their letter writing to the men who will have the voting to do. They follow the letters wherever possible with personal visits. There were a number of Republican candidates here over Sunday who have been "circuit riding" the state for the last two months. Some of them are beginning to look worn, but they must keep it up a few weeks longer, as but few think they have a "chance," although they make that kind of talk openly.

The coal operators who met here in joint conference recently with their employees for the purpose of signing a new wage agreement have presented the Columbia Club with a magnificent solid silver punchbowl, on which is engraved: "Presented to the Columbia Club by the Bituminous Coal Operators of the States of Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania, Feb. 8, 1902." When the coal kings were here the club extended warm hospitality to them, even to the extent of furnishing a room for the secret deliberations of the scale committee. Before they left the city they made up a large purse with which the punchbowl was purchased as a mark of their appreciation for the kindness they had received. The punchbowl has been placed with the other handsome and costly souvenirs owned by the club, to be used only on state occasions.

Victims of Cyclone.

Birmingham, Ala., March 17.—A cyclone struck the mining town of Piper, Bibb county, Sunday, wrecking 40 houses and damaging 35 others. Ed Turner (colored) was killed and John Allen, wife and three children were severely injured. The mines in that section are flooded and cannot be operated for several days.

Serious Row Between Boys.

Vincennes, Ind., March 17.—George Durham, aged 12 years, slashed Harrison Street, aged 11 years, with a razor while the children were playing in the schoolyard in Vincennes township, inflicting serious wounds. Durham's father will prosecute the case.

Niagara Claims Another.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 17.—A man who registered at the Hotel Lafayette as P. J. O'Connell of South Bend, Ind., jumped into Niagara river Sunday just above the Horseshoe falls and was carried over the falls.

Schoolboys At Michigan City Get Into Trouble With Police.

BIG HIGH SCHOOL ROW

Under Classmen Try to Outdo the Seniors and Are Now Facing a Charge in Court.

It Is Claimed That the Lads Broke Into School Building and Damaged Property.

Michigan City, Ind., March 17.—The determination of the under classmen of Michigan City high school to outdo the senior class of the school has brought about serious trouble for 11 young men. The seniors a few days ago succeeded in placing their class colors on the peak of the Central school. Actuated by a spirit of class rivalry a score of lower classmen organized a party and at midnight broke into the building and were making an effort to reach the offending flag when the building was surrounded by a half-dozen policemen and several citizens. Some of the boys escaped and those who were caught were taken to the police station charged with disorderly conduct. When arraigned they pleaded not guilty, and the parents of the boys, who are of the most prominent families of the city, have retained lawyers to defend the young men. The officers charge the boys with breaking windows and skylights and otherwise damaging the schoolhouse property. The boys were released on their own recognizance after brief confinement.

UNUSUAL COURT RECORD

Newtown County Probably Beats the State in This Regard.

Kentland, Ind., March 17.—The Newtown circuit court has adjourned without the calling of a jury and without transacting any business. Never since the organization of the circuit in 1873 has the docket contained so few cases. When court convened last Monday there were but 17 civil cases pending, 16 of which were on the docket at the close of last term, and none ready for trial. But one case has been filed in two months. There are but three state cases, and those will never come to trial.

Will Pay For Polluting Water.

Elwood, Ind., March 17.—The first of the damage suits brought in the Tipton county court against the American Tinplate company here by farmers of this vicinity has been won by the plaintiff, Cyrus Harvey, who alleged that his land had been damaged by the dumping of refuse into Duck creek from the factory here, and he was awarded $150 damages. Duck creek flows through Harvey's farm, and a number of other land owners, who were similarly situated, were interested in the suit. The verdict, while smaller than asked, establishes the company's liability, and the other suits will be pushed vigorously.

Barrett Law Ruling.

Indianapolis, March 17.—Judge Carter has held unconstitutional the section of the Barrett law providing for a 20 per cent penalty for delinquency. Judge Carter ruled that the city, which has been collecting these delinquencies, has no interest except as an agent in trust for the holders of the Barrett law bonds. The case in which the decision was made is that of the New York Investment company against the city of Indianapolis.

A Peacemaker Injured.

Valparaiso, Ind., March 17.—While attempting to stop a fight between her two younger brothers, Edith Henry of this county, aged 16 years, was slashed with a knife in the hands of one of the lads and was seriously wounded. She will probably recover, but will be marked for life. The boys are 12 and 8 years old, respectively.

Fire Loss at Goodland.

Goodland, Ind., March 17.—Fire here Saturday night destroyed about $35,000 worth of buildings and merchandise. The hardware store of C. E. Burgess, the postoffice building, Toyne's grocery store, the Goodland Bank and Stein's general store were destroyed. Most of the property was fairly well insured.

Deadly Mimic Warfare.

Greencastle, Ind., Mar. 17.—A game of mimic war that was being carried on at Cloverdale Saturday evening by young men resulted in the instant death of Andrew Naugle, the 18-year-old son of Milton Naugle, who was shot with a gun in the hands of Harvey Coberdale, 24 years old.

Organ Factory Started.

Wabash, Ind., March 17.—The Butler Organ company opened a new factory at Lafontaine, this county, today, employing at the outset 50 men. This force will be largely increased. The first organs will be turned out April 15.

New Indiana Railroad.

Goshen, Ind., March 17.—James Rothwell of St. Louis has closed contracts for most of the right of way for the Goshen-Wawasee interurban line. Construction will be commenced at once.

DIRE PUNISHMENT

An Official Hair Cut Worse Than a Lickin' for Redskins.

Muskogee, I. T., March 17.—Rather than submit to a haircut eight full-blooded Cherokee Indians, arrested Saturday charged with being in contempt of the federal court, yesterday enrolled before the Dawes commission. These Indians are members of the Ketowah society, composed of an element in the Cherokee nation opposed to enrollment. Last month Judge Raymond of the United States territorial court ordered them to present themselves for enrollment under pain of contempt. They disobeyed the order and were arrested and placed in the federal jail here. Saturday night the government officials pleaded with them to submit, but they declined stoutly, Redbird Smith, their leader, making an impassioned speech in defense of their action. Argument being of no avail, an order was issued Sunday that each prisoner should have his hair cut. They were lined up to take their turn in the barber's chair. When the first Indian had lost his shock of hair the others broke down and signified their willingness to enroll. With sullen faces they signed their names to the enrollment and were released.

THEY ARE OBEDIENT

Longshoremen and Teamsters At Boston are Still Holding Out.

Boston, March 17.—Saturday's conferences cleared the atmosphere of so many of the perplexing questions arising out of the great industrial strike of the past week and apparently rendered a peaceful termination so certain that labor men and all who have figured in the movement were able Sunday to secure the relaxation which it has been impossible for them to obtain since the strike was inaugurated. Today, however, there are clouds on the horizon and indications are not lacking that matters are by no means running smoothly. Practically all the strikers outside the longshoremen and team drivers are satisfied with the present outlook for a settlement so far as their organizations are concerned, but those two classes of workmen have grievances which seem to baffle all attempts at a compromise.

IMPLICATED OTHERS

Col. Grimm's Arrest Leads to Russian Army Scandal.

Vienna, March 17.—About 60 arrests have been made in connection with the condemnation to death by a court-martial at Warsaw of a Russian colonel named Grimm for the systematic revelation of military secrets to a foreign power. Among the persons apprehended are a number of Russian officers of high rank. Colonel Grimm has not yet been executed. It is asserted that Colonel Grimm, during 10 years, has revealed to Germany every plan prepared by Russia in the eventuality of war between the two countries. The discovery was due to Colonel Grimm's wife, who denounced her husband in revenge for his having paid court to another woman.

An Illinois Tragedy.

Hidalgo, Ills., March 17.—David Williams, a prominent citizen of this place, yesterday shot and killed Edward Ortmann. An old grudge had existed between the two men, and Ortmann, it is alleged, had threatened Williams' life a number of times. Yesterday Ortmann went into Williams' drug store and placed his hand on his hip pocket. Williams then commenced firing and shot 11 times, eight bullets taking effect. Ortmann was killed instantly.

Hugh O'Neill Dead.

New York, March 17.—Hugh O'Neill, founder of one of the largest retail dry goods businesses in New York, died Sunday at his residence in this city. Mr. O'Neill was a native of Belfast, Ireland, and was 59 years old.

"A New Woman."

Disease makes many a woman prematurely old. Dark-rimmed eyes, hollow cheeks and wasted form are accompanied by listlessness and loss of ambition. Home duties are a weariness, and social pleasures have no attraction.

One of the commonest expressions of women cured by Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is this: "I have made a new woman of me." There's a world of meaning in the words. It means the sparkle brought back to the eyes; the complexion tinted with the rosy hue of healthy blood; the form rounded out anew in graceful curves; the whole body radiant with health.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures debilitating drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes new women of those prematurely aged by disease.

"Dr. Pierce's medicines are the best I have ever used," writes Mrs. C. Nelson, of Chemswe, Marion Co., Oregon. "My health was badly run down when I consulted him by letter. My limbs were cold and my head hurt me continually. I was so nervous that the least thing would startle me almost into convulsions. I had palpitation of the heart so bad that I could scarcely walk sometimes. I felt utterly discouraged, but two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' made a new woman out of me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps for pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for it in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Notice to Republicans.

The Republicans of the city of Seymour are hereby notified that the republican primary election will be held on Thursday, April 3, 1902, for the purpose of nominating a full city ticket. Due notice will be given of the polling places and the hours said polling places will be open.

H. E. McDONALD, chairman.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR CITY CLERK.

We are authorized to announce the name of JOSEPH E. McKINNEY, as a candidate for city clerk, subject to the republican primary election, April 3, 1902.

FOR CITY MARSHAL.

We are authorized to announce the name of JOHN H. HOPEWELL as a candidate for marshal of the City of Seymour, subject to the decision of the republican primary election, April 3, 1902.

We are authorized to announce the name of WILLIAM B. RUSSELL as a candidate for marshal of the City of Seymour, subject to the republican primary election April 3, 1902.

We are authorized to announce the name of HENRY C. LE BRANDT as a candidate for marshal of the City of Seymour, subject to the republican primary election, April 3, 1902.

We are authorized to announce the name of ROBERT W. IRWIN as a candidate for marshal of the City of Seymour, subject to the republican primary election, April 3, 1902.

We are authorized to announce the name of ABRAHAM THORNTON as a candidate for marshal of the City of Seymour, subject to the republican primary election April 3, 1902.

FOR COUNCILMAN.

We are authorized to announce the name of JAMES D. THOMPSON as a candidate for councilman from the Fifth ward of the City of Seymour, subject to the republican primary election April 3, 1902.

The democrats of Daviess county gave Congressman Meirs a cold scald Saturday. Every delegate chosen is against him first last and all the time. Meirs was present but he was not able to control the opposition. His chances for a renomination are not very flattering.

POPULAR government begins with the primary election. No election is more important than that one at which candidates are chosen. Primaries should always call out the people. Taking part in the party primary is a civic duty of large importance. The dates of two primaries in which the people of Seymour are interested have been fixed. The republican city primary will be held April 3. The democratic county primary is set for April 14.

FRANK BURKE, former district attorney and one of the best known democrats of Indiana, made a speech at a democratic meeting at Indianapolis last week that shows his sympathy for the colored people. In advocating a delegate convention for Marion county he said:

"This would keep the 'niggers' out. The Democrats of Marion county have 7,000 black votes against them, but let the Republicans keep them. The 'niggers' have no business in the Democratic party. We fought them to last last ditch to keep from conferring the right of franchise on them. Now let the party that conferred this rank keep them. They belong to that party—not to us." This was received with much enthusiasm. He also said in the course of his remarks: "I am delighted to get back into a Democratic convention that is not marred by a single black face."

This speech is already causing democrats to lose sleep for they know it is a direct slap at the colored people by one of their leaders.

Mr. C. G. Niebaum, of Shelbyville, came here this morning to visit friends.

Carl Peter is home from Illinois visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Peter.

Mrs. Mary Richardson went to Indianapolis this morning to visit her daughter who is in school there.

INSURANCE RATES GO UP.

An Advance of 25 per cent on Merchantile Stocks.

Dr. L. M. Mains, the local insurance inspector, has given notice to all local agents of an advance of a flat advance of insurance rates to apply from March 17, as follows:

"On mercantile stocks in all buildings except such as are occupied as dwellings above the grade floor, and on frame store buildings, and on all manufacturing risks and other special hazards to include cold storage risks, mill lumber yards, and grain elevators, which have not been rated under union schedules within one year. Such advanced rates to maintain until risks shall be re-rated under union schedules.

This advance does not apply to risks equipped with an approved standard sprinkler system."

The local agents here and over the state are not surprised that the insurance rates have been advanced. The losses in Indiana since January 1 have been enormous. The losses in February were over $800,000 in this state and this amounts to one-fifth of the total premiums paid in Indiana in twelve months.

Insurance companies are reducing their lines on all special hazards and many foreign companies have ceased to write insurance in the United States.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

The republicans of Owen township met at Clearspring Saturday and elected Joshua England, delegate to the state convention, and W. D. Richards, alternate.

Ed. V. Fitzpatrick, of Portland, was here between trains this afternoon on his way to Indianapolis. He is a candidate for clerk of supreme court. He is now serving his second term as clerk of Jay county.

Joseph E. McKinney announces today as a candidate for city clerk, subject to the republican primary election. Mr. McKinney is well known to the people of Seymour. He served as city clerk four years and proved himself a faithful and efficient officer.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Gus Mix who had his leg broken is resting comfortably. Gustavus Prather, of the Air Line, was a visitor here today.

Trainmaster N. C. Bennette, of the J. M. & L. was here today. Frank Busick, of the E. & T. H., was business visitor here today.

Engineer James Gabriel, of Louisville, was here Sunday to spend the day with friends.

H. H. Roseman, of the Southern Indiana and wife went to Indianapolis this forenoon on business.

Restaurant Keeper Quits.

Harvey Wheeler who has been running a restaurant and fish market on East Second street for three or four months left rather suddenly Sunday night. He is thought to have gone to Indianapolis. Wheeler came here from Illinois when he opened the restaurant, but business was not prosperous and he decided to quit. George Harris moved the furniture out today.

Chiefly by Advertising.

A London journalist tells the business men of that community that the surprising success of Americans in placing their products among English people is chiefly due to the skill and courage with which the Americans advertise. "They prove," he says, "the tremendous influence of advertising in its effect on the success of an industrial nation." The article is a striking tribute to the importance of publicity to business.

The famous Georgia Minstrels will be at the opera house tomorrow night.

S. G. Rogers, the photographer, drove to Sauers today and took a picture of F. W. Pohlman's school. Mr. Rogers found it very cold driving.

M. F. Everback will leave tomorrow for Evansville where he will make his home with his son-in-law, George Attkisson. Mr. Everback has been a resident of Seymour for about twenty years. For about ten years he was in the newspaper business, conducting the Seymour Journal, which was then a republican paper. For a number of years he was quite active in politics and being a proficient German scholar he made German speeches frequently. More recently he has been engaged at different places in making addresses on social and religious topics.

ENGINEER KILLED

Explosion at Wohrer's Saw Mill Saturday.

Saturday afternoon John Cox, engineer at Wohrer's saw mill two miles west of Hayden, was killed. The boiler head blew out and Cox was standing where he was struck by a piece of iron and killed instantly. No one else about the mill was hurt, but all were badly frightened. It is said the boiler was old and out of repair. Cox was thirty-one years of age and leaves a wife and five children. Burial at Wohrer's cemetery Monday.

High Wind Saturday Night

The high wind Saturday night did considerable damage over the county. Quite a lot of fencing and a great deal of timber was blown down. At Brownstown several buildings were partly unroofed and the east end of the boiler room at the strawboard mill was blown in. John V. Schall, foreman with two boiler makers from Madison and a laborer had been making some repairs on the boilers and only a moment before the crash had finished their work and stepped into the engineroom. The brick and mortar was blown against the boiler heads to the depth of three or four feet.

AN ANECDOTE OF WHITMAN.

How the Poet Was Trying to Cheer Up a Friendless Boy.

One day I was stopped on Washington street, says J. T. Trowbridge in The Atlantic, by a friend who made this startling announcement: "Wait Whitman is in town. I have just seen him." When I asked where, he replied: "At the stereotypy foundry, just around the corner. Come along, I'll take you to him." The author of "Leaves of Grass" had loomed so large in my imagination as to seem almost superhuman, and I was filled with some such feeling of wonder and astonishment as if I had been invited to meet Socrates or King Solomon.

We found a large, gray haired and gray bearded, plainly dressed man, reading proof sheets at a desk in a little dingy office, with a lank, unwholesome looking lad at his elbow listlessly watching him. The man was Whitman, and the proofs were those of his new edition. There was a scarcity of chairs, and Whitman, rising to receive us, offered me his, but we all remained standing except the sickly looking lad, who kept his seat until Whitman turned to him and said: "You'd better go now. I'll see you this evening." After he had gone out Whitman explained: "He is a friendless boy I found at my boarding place. I am trying to cheer him up and strengthen him with my magnetism," a practical but curiously prosaic illustration of these powerful lines in the early poems:

To any one dying thither I speed and twist the knob of the door.
I seize the descending man; I raise him with resistless will.
Every room of the house do I fill with an armed force, lovers of one, bafflers of graves.

Natural Disadvantages.

"Taking into consideration the things Sharp has had to contend against, I think his success as a lawyer has been remarkable."

"Why, what did he ever have to contend against?"

"Everything. He came of a wealthy family. He didn't have to work his way through college. He never studied by the light of a pine torch, never had to drive a dray, never walked six miles to school and wasn't compelled to borrow his books. He had every possible facility, and yet he has done well from the very start."—Chicago Tribune.

Customer—I want 10 cents' worth of zinc for my sister.

Drug Clerk—What kind of zinc? There are about 40 kinds. What does your sister want to use it for?

Customer—I don't know the kind. She said I must not tell what she wanted it for.

Drug Clerk—Was it oxide of zinc she wanted?

Customer—Yes, that's it; outside of zinc to put on her face.—Brooklyn Life.

JUDSON ALTON EXCURSIONS
ESTABLISHED 1880 PERSONALLY CONDUCTED

YOU are invited to accept these extraordinary ticket bargains and the advantages of the Judson-Alton Through California Service. Sleeping Cars, without change, Chicago to Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland. Two routes—"Scenic" and "True Southern."

Mr. Geo. H. Lennartz, Agent Judson-Alton Excursion Company, 319 Marquette Building, Chicago, Ill., will gladly elaborate upon the foregoing. He deals in that direct way which is the result of experience in arranging transcontinental journeys. He has inducements to offer which are "worth while," and his courteous assistance does not end when tickets are bought. Specially selected tourist managers go through from Chicago to the Pacific coast, attending to the checking of baggage, pointing out scenery and places of interest, and giving the attention en route which makes the transcontinental trip comfortable and enjoyable. Let Mr. Lennartz place your name on his mailing list for detailed advertising matter. His little book explains everything; answers all questions.

LITTLE LEAKS.

What They May Lead to and How They May Be Stopped.

It is possible to lose much by little. A classic case is that of the royal granary which was depleted of its stores by a succession of "one rat came and took one grain away, and another rat came and took another grain away." So fortunes are dissipated, and reputations are destroyed, and health is ruined and character itself lost—by little extravagances, little indiscretions, little negligences, little obliquities.

Benjamin Franklin was a great economist not alone of money, but of time. He said, "To teach a young man to shave himself is as good as to give him a purse of gold." He had reference to minutes as well as the dimes it costs to patronize the barber.

Elihu Burritt stopped the leak in his time and taught himself a dozen languages. Gladstone was equally wise, for he read Plato in his carriage between Carleton terrace and the parliament buildings.

A prosperous man ascribed his success in business to his habit of permitting no particle of material to be unproductive. He experimented and elaborated until he found a method of disposing profitably of every atom left over.

There is a man in New York who has in bank a goodly sum of money which he calls his "tip fund." When tempted to needless expenditure by the specious plea, "Tis but a nickel or a quarter or a dollar," he denies himself and drops the amount he would have spent into a portable bank, which is filled with amazing rapidity. That is one way to stop a leak.

More serious than any prudential matter are the little leaks in life by which vital energy is squandered and moral force is diminished, imperceptibly it may be, but which we sometime regard as inconsequential acts. Lack of order in our methods of labor, indifference to the "minor morals" of hygiene and the "major morals" of honesty and truth, the practical repudiation of personal responsibility, the neglect of duties which arise from our ethical and religious nature—these are the leaks which we must stop or be bankrupt in the world's eyes and in God's.—Saturday Evening Post.

SINGULAR MAXIMS.

Old Time Rules For the Table by the German Poet Von Zirkler.

That our ancestors were not so well managed as we are is evident from the following rules, which were laid down by Tommasius von Zirkler, a German poet, in regard to the conduct of a host and his guest at a dinner party. These singular maxims were recently unearthed and have now been reprinted: "Every host should take care that his guests have enough to eat and that they are not served with dishes that they do not want. In return the guests should behave properly and should be satisfied with whatever is placed before them.

"A guest should not eat all his bread before the first dishes are served, neither should he eat with both hands nor drink nor talk when his mouth is full.

"It is not polite to turn toward one's neighbor and to offer him a winecup from which one is still drinking.

"One should not eat greedily and hastily, as though the dinner had been paid for, neither should one take any food from his neighbor's plate. In a word, each person should accept what is offered and ask for nothing else.

"When there is some one on the right hand, it is permissible to eat with the left hand.

"While one is drinking the eyes should be steadily fixed on the winecup.

"It is improper to place one's hand in a dish while another person is taking some food from it.

"One should always have the hands clean and the nails cut short, as otherwise those persons who are eating from the same dish are likely to become disgusted.

"A guest should never put his elbows on the table, neither should he chatter all the time nor clean his teeth with a knife."—Chicago Herald.

TWO FAMOUS RIDERS

STRIKING FEATS OF ENDURANCE IN THE PIONEER DAYS OF THE WEST.

Aubrey's Ride Was the Greatest Physical Achievement Ever Accomplished in This Country—Frontiersman Jim Moore's Hard Ride.

The greatest physical achievement ever accomplished in this country was the ride of F. X. Aubrey from the plaza of Santa Fe, N. M., to the Public square at Independence, Mo., a distance of nearly 800 miles, through a country inhabited by warlike Indians, a large part of which was then a sandy desert. It was about the year 1851 that Aubrey gave his wonderful test of human endurance, before which all other attempts of the kind pale into insignificance. He was a short, heavy set man, 38 years of age, in the prime of manhood and strength. His business for ten years as a Santa Fe trader had made him perfectly familiar with the trail and all the stopping places. He was a perfect horseman, and, although there were great riders in those days, none of them cared to dispute the palm with Aubrey.

On a wager of $1,000 he undertook to ride alone from Santa Fe to Independence inside of six days. It was without a thought of fear that he undertook the terrible feat. It was to be the supreme effort of his life, and he sent half a dozen of the swiftest horses ahead, to be stationed at different points for use in the ride. He left Santa Fe in a sweeping gallop, and that was the pace kept up during nearly every hour of the time until he fell fainting from his foam covered horse in the square at Independence. No man could keep up with the rider, and he would have killed every horse in the west rather than have failed in the undertaking. It took him just 5 days and 19 hours to perform the feat, and it cost the lives of several of his best horses.

After being carried into a room in the old hotel at Independence Aubrey lay for 48 hours in a dead stupor before he came to his senses. He would never have recovered from the shock had it not been for his wonderful constitution. The feat was unanimously regarded by western men as the greatest exhibition of strength and endurance ever known on the plains.

The ride of Jim Moore, a noted frontiersman of the pioneer days, is also worthy of mention. Moore was a man of almost perfect physique. In fact, by military standards he was a model. He weighed 160 pounds, stood 5 feet 10 inches, straight as an arrow, with good neck well set on his shoulders, small waist, but good loins, and had the limbs of a thoroughbred. No finer looking man physically ever rode a broncho than Jim Moore. He could run like an Indian, was as active as a panther, the best natured man in the world, but as courageous as a lion.

In the early sixties Moore was a pony express rider. His route was from Midway station, half way between Fort Kearney and Cottonwood Springs, to Julesburg, a distance of 140 miles. Moore rode the round trip of 280 miles once a week. The stations were from 10 to 14 miles apart, and a fresh horse of Spanish blood was obtained at each station. There was little delay in these changes of horses, as the rider gave the "coyote yell" half a mile away, and, day or night, the station men had the pony ready, so that the rider only had to dismount from one horse and mount the other, and with a dig of the spurs he was on a run again. This ride of 140 miles usually was made in 12 hours. On each route there were two express riders, one going each way. As easy as it may seem to some for a man to bestride fresh horse after horse for 140 miles, there were few men able to stand up to it.

Upon the occasion of which I am to speak Moore's route partner had been ailing, and Moore was anticipating and dreading that he might have to double the route. In this anticipation he realized that there is a time limit to endurance, and therefore he gave the broncho a little more of the steel than usual and made the trip to Julesburg in 11 hours. Arriving at Julesburg, he had his fears confirmed. His partner was in bed. He had hoped that he might have a few hours for rest, but before he had time to dismount and stretch his cramped and tired muscles the "coyote yell" of the east going rider was heard.

He drank some cold coffee, filled his pocket with cold meat and was in the saddle again for another 140 mile ride. In order to be able to live the route out he seat them for all there was in them, with the result that he arrived at Midway after having ridden 280 miles, in 22 hours from the time he had left there. Ben Holliday gave him a gold watch and a certificate of his remarkable performance. Many of the old frontiersmen now living knew Moore, knew of his 280 mile ride in 22 hours and have seen the watch and certificate.—Spirit of the Times.

A Toast.

St. Patrick was a gentleman Who, through strategy and stealth, Drove all snakes from Ireland; Here's a bumper to his health.

But not too many bumpers Lest we lose ourselves, and then— Forget the good St. Patrick And see the snakes again.

—From Truck News.

St. Patrick's Day.

March 17 is the day on which special honor is paid to the memory of Ireland's patron saint. In many cities there were demonstrations Sunday of more or less proportions. Both yesterday and today the wearers of green have been observed on every hand. There were parades, public meetings, banquets and religious services all in celebration of this day that is sacred to every loyal son of Erin. The praises of Ireland have been sung. The good work of St. Patrick has been extolled again and all participants have been benefited. Though the story of St. Patrick is surrounded by more or less mystery it is always interesting.

DIED.

SLAGLE—Jack Slagle, son of George Slagle, of Seymour, died Saturday evening, March 15, at his home at East St. Louis, age forty-four years. A telegram came to his father here Saturday evening announcing his death. Jack Slagle had many friends in Seymour where he spent his earlier life. He was employed in the yards of the Southern railroad at East St. Louis at the time of his death. Burial at Chicago Junction, Ohio, Monday. He leaves a wife.

Series B.

The Cooperative building and loan association offers its stockholders excellent returns for all money invested with them. A new series will start Monday April 11 and an investment of twenty five cents per week for each share will earn dividends from the very start. It is a good opportunity to begin regular savings. See W. F. Peters, secretary for full particulars and for statement showing how much you can save if you wish to make a loan. m 19 d

Grider Mrs Martha

W. P. MASTERS, P. M.

Dr. W. E. Gerrish sends a Los Angeles, California, paper to his brother, Dr. M. F. Gerrish, containing a picture of President Roosevelt's "double." F. E. Huddleson, a prominent man of that western city. One has to put the picture along side that of the President to distinguish the difference. The similarity is remarkable.

Thou has strange notions for one so young a substitute to think thou art the same as Rocky Mountain Tea made by the Madison Medicine Co. 35 cents. As your druggist.

Fast train to Chicago via Southern Indiana railway leaves Seymour 6:50 a.m., arrives at Chicago at 4:10 p. m. always on time.

A WORLD WIDE VICTORY.
The recent victories of the house of Baldwin at the Paris Exposition give to its products a value and prestige not possessed by any other American piano. The grand Prix awarded the Baldwin Piano is an honor coveted by all the manufacturers of the world, but which has never been bestowed upon any American piano except the Baldwin. The Silver Medal awarded the Hamilton pianos and organs shows the estimate of the International Jury of these Standard Instruments. The fifteen other awards [gold, silver and bronze medals, and honorable mentions], serve to emphasize the Great one, and show the high value placed upon the details of construction and the inventions embodied in these instruments.
